ABOUT YOUR RESEARCH

Special attention will be paid to the need and coherence of the research time, and to ethical references. Since it pretends to be the very first step of a research, subjects and practices that have never been studied by the artist will have priority.

Motivation (What has brought you to research or question yourself?) *

In your current opinion, which would be the starting elements of your research? Circus disciplines, other arts, considerations, observations... *

How or with what do you think you could magnify your thought? Means, tools, challenges, that could stoke your research. *

ARTISTIC INFORMATION

Who are you? *

(Please indicate the most important events of your educational and artistic life (500 words maximum))

Links to videos *

That help us to understand you (up to 3 videos)

You can upload pictures here
